NURSING FACULTY OPPORTUNITY
Adult-Gerontology Acute Care Nurse Practitioner

The Duke University School of Nursing (DUSON) invites applications from doctorally prepared candidates for a full-time faculty position with primary teaching responsibilities within the School’s Master of Science in Nursing program. National Certification as an Adult-gerontology Acute Care Nurse Practitioner is required. Well qualified applicants will be clinically experienced, demonstrate a commitment to teaching and practice, and be eligible for approval to practice as a Nurse Practitioner in North Carolina. Candidates will have a minimum of one year of Acute Care NP practice within the past five years. Two to three years experience teaching at the graduate level and experiences teaching and caring for populations in acute care settings are required. Candidates will also show evidence of a developed program of scholarship. Faculty appointment for this position will be made at the Assistant or Associate Professor level on either Track I (tenure earning) or Track II (a non-tenure earning practice/clinical track), depending on the candidate’s qualifications.

The Duke Nursing community includes 86 full-time faculty members, over 120 staff members and approximately 1,000 students. The School offers four degree programs: ABSN, MSN, DNP and PhD. More information on the School and the programs can be found at nursing.duke.edu. Duke University offers an unusually rich, interdisciplinary environment conducive to teaching, practice, and research across the undergraduate, graduate, and professional schools (Nursing, Medicine, Divinity, Business, Law, Engineering, Environment and Policy) and various sponsored institutes. Duke is rated by its employees as one of the best places to work in the Triangle area and offers a competitive salary and benefits package, and the Duke University School of Nursing was ranked #5 in the most recent U.S. News and World Report rankings of graduate nursing programs and #9 among Schools of Nursing receiving NIH funding in 2015.

Applications are due by March 1, 2016 for a targeted July, 2016 start date. Interested individuals should email a curriculum vitae and cover letter detailing their specific teaching and clinical experience, areas of scholarship and service, and commitment to diversity with this opportunity, along with the names and contact information for three references to Duke University School of Nursing, Attn: Director, Faculty Affairs, to sonfacul@dm.duke.edu. Individuals from under-represented groups are encouraged to apply.
