NURSING FACULTY OPPORTUNITY
Senior Nurse Researcher

The Duke University School of Nursing invites applications from registered nurse faculty candidates with research expertise of importance to nursing and healthcare. Eligible candidates must be eligible for appointment at the rank of tenured Professor and generally will hold that position in their current position. A strong history of consistent, large, externally funded research studies over a sustained period of time that demonstrates a well-established program of funded research, together with evidence of strong potential for continued funding is required. Teaching contributions and research mentorship are expected as is continued research productivity and scholarly contributions.

The Duke Nursing community includes 86 full-time faculty members, over 120 staff members and approximately 1,000 students. The School offers four degree programs: ABSN, MSN, DNP and PhD. More information on the School and the programs can be found at nursing.duke.edu. Duke University offers an unusually rich, interdisciplinary environment conducive to teaching, practice, and research across the undergraduate, graduate, and professional schools (Nursing, Medicine, Divinity, Business, Law, Engineering, Environment and Policy) and various sponsored institutes. Duke is rated by its employees as one of the best places to work in the Triangle area and offers a competitive salary and benefits package, and the Duke University School of Nursing was ranked #5 in the most recent U.S. News and World Report rankings of graduate nursing programs and #9 among Schools of Nursing receiving NIH funding in 2015.

Applications are currently being accepted for this position and will be accepted until the position is filled. Interested individuals should email a curriculum vitae and cover letter detailing their specific teaching and clinical experience, areas of scholarship and service, and commitment to diversity with this opportunity, along with the names and contact information for three references to Duke University School of Nursing, Attn: Director, Faculty Affairs, to sonfacul@dm.duke.edu.
