Airport: The Duke University campus is served by the Raleigh-Durham International Airport (RDU), located approximately 15 miles from Duke School of Nursing.

Ground Transportation: You should allow at least 30 minutes of travel time between the airport and the Duke School of Nursing or the local hotel. Shuttle service, taxi and rental car information is available on the RDU website (under the heading Ground Transportation). Most of the hotels offer free shuttle service to/from the hotel, Duke Campus and the School of Nursing. Each area hotel should also be able to provide a listing of taxi services in the area.

Parking: If you are traveling by car there is a Parking Garage directly across from the School of Nursing (PG1/Visitor parking). Parking fee for garage is $6/day. Upon entering the garage, collect your ticket at the entrance gate and pay the parking attendant upon exiting.

Area Hotels: The following accommodation options are listed in order of their distance from the School of Nursing, beginning with those that are closest. Make sure to ask for a Duke discount when you make your reservations.
