

Tuition & Fee Charges for Duke University School of Nursing MSN Students 2026-27 Academic Year

Tuition Rate

- $2,345 Per Credit Hour
- Tuition rates are calculated per credit hour. Please visit the matriculation plans page and select your major to calculate the exact costs.

Fees: Fees are automatically generated following registration.

Possible Fees	Frequency	2026 - 2027
Technology	Each semester	$200
Transcript Fee*	First semester only	$120
Health Fee* ( waiver requirements )	Each semester	$523.50 Fall/Spring $374.00 Summer
Graduate Student Activity Fee*	Fall and Spring	$20.00
Graduate Student Services Fee*	Fall and Spring	$14.00
Health Insurance* † (optional)	Once per year	Visit the Student Health website
Matriculation Fee	1-Time Fee for New Students	$500
Clinical Lab Fee	Once; for N595 Diagnostic Reasoning & Physical Assessment	$125
Clinical Placement Fee	1-Time Fee for New Students	$1,500
Clinical Readiness Fee	1-Time Fee for New Students	$650

*Duke University Fee - Fees updated in May.

†Questions concerning health insurance should be directed to the Student Health Insurance Office.

Important Notes:

- All prices are subject to change each academic year.
- Students in clinical programs or majors should plan to pay an estimated $100-$200 per year in drug screening costs, based upon requirements of the particular clinical sites, which vary.
- Changes to a student's major or course load may incur additional tuition charges and fees.
- Students in clinical programs or majors should plan to pay an estimated $100-$200 per year in drug screening costs, based upon requirements of the particular clinical sites, which vary.