Military Scholarship Application

The Duke University School of Nursing supports active duty military students with tuition expenses through a special scholarship program. The scholarship is offered on a first-come/first-served funds-available basis.

To request consideration for the military scholarship program, complete this application and return it to the Office of Admissions and Student Services. Only students who have been admitted to an MSN or DNP program are eligible for DUSON's military scholarship; ABSN and MSN Certificate students are not eligible to apply.
