HOW TO REPORT SEXUAL MISCONDUCT INVOLVING STUDENTS

Duke University and Duke University Health System (“Duke”) are committed to encouraging and sustaining a learning and work community free from discrimination and harassment of any kind. To that end, Duke prohibits sexual misconduct which includes:

- Sex/Gender-Based Harassment
- Sexual Violence
- Sexual Exploitation
- Relationship Violence
- Sex/Gender-Based Stalking
- Retaliation

WHERE TO REPORT

If you have been subjected to sexual misconduct by a Duke faculty or staff member, a visitor to Duke, or faculty or staff from another school, or know somebody who has, you can report it to:

Office for Institutional Equity
Smith Warehouse
114 S. Buchanan Blvd., Bay 8
919-684-8222
<https://oie.duke.edu/>

If you have been subjected to sexual misconduct by an undergraduate, graduate, or professional student, or know somebody who has, you can report it to:

Office of Student Conduct
200 Crowell Building, East Campus
919-684-6938
conduct@duke.edu
<http://studentaffairs.duke.edu/conduct>

- You can also file an Incident Report online at <https://studentaffairs.duke.edu/conduct/report-incident> and click on “Report an Incident.”
- You can make an anonymous Online Care Report through the DukeReach website.

You can also report possible criminal misconduct to:

Duke University Police Department
502 Oregon St.
919-684-2444
<https://police.duke.edu/services/index.php>

If you are uncertain about whether, where, or what to report or have questions about sexual misconduct, you may contact either the Office of Student Conduct or the Office for Institutional Equity.

WHAT TO EXPECT AFTER YOU REPORT

You will be given information about available resources and supports, including a “no contact” directive, counseling, academic modifications, and changes in housing.

You will be asked if you want to proceed with a formal complaint and investigation.

If you request an investigation, it will be thorough, prompt, and fair and will respect the rights of all parties involved; e.g., all parties involved will be given the opportunity to present information and identify possible witnesses.
